Thank you to all of our congregation and families for your prayers over the past 6 months for Logan Erickson. Logan has a prosthetic leg that he is wearing for a few hours a day now. He still has a quite a bit of phantom pain. Your prayers have most certainly been felt by Logan and our family. Thank you again for your cards and calls and visits and food that was given over this time. Pastor Aaron thank you for the hot coffee and hotdogs that you brought out the evening of the accident. Thank you to everyone that was there that evening for your help and the prayers that were offered to our family members. Pastor Aaron thank you for your prayer calls and the scripture that was read during each prayer call that touched our hearts each time. We are so thankful for a praying community of people. May God be given all the glory and praise. God bless you all. Thanks, from the Erickson Family
